Re: United States v. Ponce, 08MJ8649-PCL

Dear Ms. Pollreisz:

Per my voicemail, I wanted to set forth the conditions the government would insist be imposed while your client would be on pretrial release. These conditions are identical to the conditions that Pretrial Services routinely requests in cases with similarly-situated defendants. The conditions would include:

- Travel restricted to the Southern District of California
- Report for supervision to Pretrial Services
- Submit to psychiatric/psychological counseling as specified by Pretrial Services, and such counseling is to be with a counselor who has experience in treating individuals charged with sexual crimes
- Submit to drug testing as directed by Pretrial Services (not to exceed four times per month)
- Actively seek and maintain full-time employment or schooling, or a combination of both
- No contact with children under the age of 18 unless accompanied and supervised by an adult who is aware of the charges and approved by Pretrial Services
- Report within eight (8) hours any unauthorized contact with any person under the age of 18
- Do not engage in any paid occupation or volunteer service that allows for direct or indirect exposure to children under the age of 18, unless approved in advance by Pretrial Services and the Court
- Participate in the Computer Monitoring Program (please see Pretrial Services Officer for details)
- Do not access any pornographic website via any on-line computer service or any other device with internet capabilities (e.g. iPods, X-Box, Wii, cellular telephone) at any location, at any time. This includes any internet service provider, bulletin board system, or other public or private computer network
- Surrender passport to Pretrial Services

- Active GPS with a curfew from 10:00 pm through 6:00 am
- Not frequent or loiter in any place where children congregate (e.g., schools, parks, playgrounds, video arcades, swimming pools, etc.)
- Execute a personal appearance bond in the amount of $100,000, secured by a trust deed in real property
